

FIGHT PREDICTED IN MEXICO TODAY

Regular Troops Being Rushed to Join General Navarro at Pedernales.

REBELS HOLD THEIR OWN

Situation in State of Chihuahua Has Not Changed Since the Recent Battle.

Chihuahua, Mexico, Dec. 27 (via El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27).—Semi-official information today states that the reinforcements which left here last week by train and began their march at San Antonio expect to join General Navarro at Pedernales today. Aside from a brush between scouting parties near Mal Paso last Sunday, in which none was hurt, there has been no fighting. In fact, the rebels profess to believe that the insurgents have deserted Mal Paso. However, the federals, it is said, are not attempting to go through the pass. Direct news from Ojinaga and vicinity is rare here, but the situation there is attracting increased attention. A Mexican coming from that place related a story of how forty vagabond working on a big ranch secured arms. They told their employer that they had no arms with which to defend themselves against the revolutionists. The employer, according to the story, gave each man a rifle, whereupon they deserted in a body to join the insurgents.

When the junction with Navarro is formed the federals will have 2,500 men in the disaffected district west of here. Those best informed here predict a battle tomorrow, but there is no certainty that this is correct.

Rebels Have Brass Cannon.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27.—A special representative of the El Paso Herald, after investigating in the region called "Big Bend," across the border from Texas, south of Marfa and Alpine, says the rebels hold that entire region and can defend it against a large army, as it is protected by mountain passes. He says the insurgents have old brass cannons to command these passes and are making their own shells at an old smelter. He declares they are smuggling arms from Texas, equipping men and sending them to

CAROLINE ISLAND NATIVES REVOLT

Four Europeans Murdered;
Germany Sends Warships to the Scene.

Tsing Tau, China, Dec. 27.—The German cruiser Emden sailed today for Ponape, Caroline Islands, where it is reported an insurrection has occurred.

A dispatch from Brisbane, Australia, last night stated the natives in Ponape had revolted and murdered four Europeans and five friendly natives. The Caroline Islands, together with the western Carolines, were sold by Spain to Germany in 1899. They form a large archipelago, some 680 small islands in forty-eight groups in the Pacific Ocean, latitude about five degrees to ten degrees north, longitude 135 to 165 degrees east. The most important islands are Tap and Ponape. Copra is the chief export. There are a number of trading stations on the islands, the area of which is 260 square miles. The population is about 40,000.

A series of native outbreaks that began in the winter of 1908 ceased in the following April when the local authorities succeeded in restoring order by reason of the presence of the German gunboat Jaguar.

Disturbances at that time were due to a religious warfare. The Protestant natives were arrayed against the Catholics. Each camp possessed about 300 rifles.

Berlin, Dec. 27.—The colonial office today received a message from the German governor of the Caroline Islands reporting his arrest and capture with 160 soldiers. He states that the insurgents do not exceed 250, and the natives generally are loyal.

KILLED BY ACCIDENT.

Greensboro, N. C., Dec. 27.—Fred Ward, fifteen years old, was instantly killed today when a shotgun in the hands of his father, Richard Ward, was accidentally discharged. The father and son were squirrel hunting while the father was knocking against a hollow tree with the gun stock the weapon was discharged, the entire load passing through the heart of the boy.

Joint the insurgents in the Sierra Madre region west of Chihuahua. The insurgents, he says, expect the cold weather in the high altitude of the Sierra Madre district to kill off the Mexican soldiers, who are accustomed only to hot climates.

Nicanor Griego, foreman on Emilio Creel's ranch, has been branded with the ranch brand and the entire ranch looted. The insurgents say it was done by ranch employees who were incited at him.

Americans Not Alarmed.

Douglas, Ariz., Dec. 27.—A letter from H. W. Loomis to his wife here states that the rebels in the mountains between Nacozari and Moctezuma are awaiting reinforcements, when they plan to make a combined attack on Moctezuma, in Sonora. The rebels have been seen on the hill above Nacozari, but showed no disposition to disturb the camp where the properties of the Moctezuma Copper company, part of the Phelps-Dodge interest, is located. The many Americans in this district are not alarmed over the situation, feeling satisfied that they will not be molested.

Regulars En Route.

Naco, Ariz., Dec. 27.—A company of Mexican infantry arrived in Naco, Sonora, this afternoon, and, with the company now stationed at Naco, will leave tonight under command of Captain Vargas for a point on the Nacozari railroad, where it is reported, they will go by rail to Nacozari.

A train of six coaches of soldiers left Empalme, Sonora, today, bound for Nogales, but it is reported on good authority that they will also go to Nacozari.

TELLS OF TOW TRUST

CAPTAIN DAVIDSON,
Who availed himself of the immunity and has told the entire story of the formation of the Great Lakes towing trust.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 27.—A trust organized with the purpose of the Great Lakes towing trust, which was organized by Captain Davidson, a member of the executive committee, and was one of its organizers. United States District Attorney William L. Bay, who put the Michigan vessel on the stand for the purpose of revealing the inner workings of the Great Lakes company, said that the captain would not be prosecuted, as a reward for testifying for the government.

The hearing of the government suit to dissolve the Great Lakes Towing company as a trust was adjourned here to be resumed before Special Examiner Miller at Cleveland, January 2.

PROFITS ARE TOO HEAVY

Transit Lines of New York Said to Clear From Fourteen to Twenty Per Cent Net Upon Investment.

New York, Dec. 27.—In an open letter to Mayor Gaynor, Benjamin J. Marsh, secretary of the New York congestion commission, advocates that the city obtain control of all transit lines within its confines.

"Most students of transit," he writes, "admit that in order to obtain proper service, there must be monopoly of all transit lines. People do not wish to pay two or three fares; neither do they wish a monopolistic company to earn fourteen to twenty per cent net."

Statistics given out by the public service commission today for last September show that the total number of passengers carried by surface, subway and elevated lines was 122,298,655, and the total of cash fares collected $6,266,739.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED

Woman Given Term in Prison for Running
Over Little Girl With Auto.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Dec. 27.—Mrs. Rose Selvid Tresselt, wife of a well-known business man, was sentenced today to a year in prison for running over with her automobile and killing Irene Cox, aged nine years, August 29 last.

Mrs. Tresselt was sentenced to from two to twenty years in prison, but the sentence was suspended. She had John A. Cox, father of the little girl, $5,200. Mrs. Tresselt is wealthy in her own right.

"The statement continues: 'The Northern bank was formerly known as the Northern bank, which had difficulties during the panic of 1907. Today's closing of the doors was no surprise to those who had known of the bank's condition. The suspension is regarded as unimportant.'"

Joseph G. Robin came to this country sixteen years ago from Russia with only enough money to pass the immigration barriers. For the last year he has had a powerful voice in the affairs of three banks, two bonding companies, two real estate companies and two traction roads.

He began as a reporter on a New York newspaper, left journalism to promote building and loan associations and graduated into banking.

The Haytien minister, today said he had received authority from his government to accompany the Dominican commission, which will proceed to the frontier to settle the trouble there if possible. He declared that his government desired a peaceful settlement, but believed arbitration would be necessary.

POISONOUS BERRIES.
Bokos, Okla., Dec. 27.—Two children of Benjamin White died here today as a result of eating mistletoe berries yesterday. These deaths bring the total that have occurred here from the same cause in the last two days to five.

NORTHERN BANK OF NEW YORK CLOSED

The subject matter of a long statement by Superintendent Hotchkiss.

The directors of the Aetna admitted tonight that "the report given out by the insurance department was correct in essential particulars." The statement of Mr. Hotchkiss follows, in part: "Joseph G. Robin, who has been in the controlling stockholder of the Aetna Indemnity company and apparent owner of the Northern Bank of New York, one of the chief assets of the Aetna Indemnity company (a Connecticut corporation, in no way related to the Aetna fire insurance company) has been sold, according to the statement of December 21, 1909, 1,500 shares, or the entire issue of the corporation stock of the Title and Guarantee company of Rochester. "The latter is a New York insurance corporation, authorized to do a fidelity bond business. This corporation had, however, been dormant for some time. A lease of its title plant to a Rochester abstract company produced an income, which, in addition to its other assets, gave the stockholders the value of $100,000 and has been the assets of the Aetna company of approximately $1,000,000.

Plan of Robin.
"Coinciding with an increase in the capital stock of the Aetna Indemnity company last spring, Robin seems to have opened negotiations for the purchase from it of the corporate stock of the Title and Guarantee company. About that time both companies elected new officers. Former Superintendent Kelsey (O. H. Kelsey of the state insurance department) becoming president of both. "It appears that shortly prior to this time, Robin, as one of the witnesses said, had stated that he would purchase from the Aetna the stock of the Title and Guarantee company.

"On the strength of this statement, for there was no contract until October, 1910—the assets of the Rochester company turned over to him on March 21, and, without the knowledge of President Kelsey or other officers of the two interested insurance companies, disposed of and manipulated as Robin directed."

Summary of Manipulation.
"The summary of this alleged manipulation follows and the statement then continues: "As a result, when the present investigation began, the Title and Guarantee company of Rochester instead of assets consisting of approximately $100,000 and practically no liabilities had assets of $2,000,000 and had bonds and stock in the Robin concerns, whose value is approximately $100,000. This is not a net increase of about $125,000 to be reduced, of course, by the ultimate returns from the Robin securities."

"Fortunately, the Rochester company is not actively in business and the interests of policyholders are not affected. "There is undoubtedly a considerable shrinkage in the assets of the Aetna Indemnity company, whose small surplus is unquestionably wiped out and whose capital is impaired. Whether the surplus was equal to special dividends and regular force, which Alfred succeeded in getting his man to the railroad station, planning to take him to the city, where he was to be arrested, late, however, and the mob meanwhile grew to such proportions that when the train arrived the authorities were unable to carry out their plans.

The appearance of Mr. Anglin, father of the boy who was killed in the platform of the station, telling the crowd that the story of his daughter as true as steel, set the mob wild. "While she struggled he dragged her fully 300 yards, and following the attack he was in the alleged act of strangling her when a railroad flag man came running to her rescue. The negro ran to a horse tied nearby and made off, but the animal fell, throwing the rider. His shoulder was dislocated and he was captured.

Prosecuting Attorney Swint made attempts to appeal to the people from a truck, but the truck was drawn from beneath him and the crowd yelled him down. The officials were unable to cope with the situation at this time. At 7:15 the mob burst open the door of the express room, where the sheriff and his posse had taken refuge. All the windows were broken and the mob demanded the negro. He was pushed into the concealed vault of the express company for safekeeping, with hardly a breath of air. An appeal to Governor Claiborne at Charleston, S. C., was followed immediately by an order for the mobilization of the militia at Charleston, Ga. Drafted men and their dispatch here by special train. Until the arrival of the troops it was necessary to confine the negro in the airless vault. Although there was danger of suffocating him, it was considered a greater peril to release him while the mob's frenzy was at its height.

After the negro's hearing this afternoon he was held to the school without bail, to answer to the charge of assault and attempt to murder. "The inward effects of humors are worse than the outward. Hood's Sarsaparilla eradicates all humors, cures all their inward and outward effects. It is the great alternative tonic, whose merit has been everywhere established.

GOOD SHOWING FOR YEAR

Postoffice Department in Fair Way to Become Self-Sustaining at No Distant Date.

Washington, Dec. 27.—That Postmaster General Hitchcock is determined to put the postoffice department on a self-sustaining basis is evidenced in the annual report of the third assistant postmaster general, made public today. Though expenditures for last year are still in excess of receipts, there is a marked decrease in expenditures compared with a year ago.

The total postal receipts for the fiscal year 1910 aggregated $224,128,657. This is an increase of $20,548,274, or 10.19 per cent when compared with those for the preceding year.

The expenditures for last year were $229,977,224, an excess over receipts of $5,848,567. To this should be added $32,915 lost by burglary, fire, bad debts, etc., making a total of $5,881,481, a decrease of $11,598,288 when compared with the deficit of the fiscal year 1909.

PIANOLA-PIANOS VS. UPRIGHT PIANOS

A Difference of Opinion Is Responsible for This Sale

A difference of opinion that gives preference almost equally to the Pianola-Piano on one side and the upright piano on the other. It is for piano buyers to choose, and for us to satisfy the demand for both. But for some time the demand has been unequally divided, and the preference has been given largely to the Pianola-Piano. As a consequence the best homes in Salt Lake City have contributed their uprights to this sale in exchange for Pianola-Pianos.

Every piano on sale looks as good as new, sounds as good as new, is as good as new, and many represent the highest quality and price in America or the world. In appearance and tone you will be unable to distinguish these pianos from new ones.
